

Air Purifiers

Nvis 952

Nvis 952 Air Purifier is an electronic air cleaner which is used to keep the indoor air clean and fresh by generating negative ions. Negative ions are electrical charged particles (atoms or molecules). The proportion of negative ions is highest around moving water storms, oceans, rivers, waterfalls. It's no wonder that we feel so energized at the beach. Thus negative ions are good for healthy breathing and help us feel better.
